

Searching for a missing loved one

Scan using your phone's camera for information, resources, & services

This free resource offers guidance on what to do when you've lost touch with a loved one.

The guide outlines how to assess the urgency and where to find support with your search.

It is intended to support missing adults who use substances, with resources and services specific to British Columbia.

To learn more, go to www.bccsu.ca/search-missing-person/